VISION

Center of excellence for globally acceptable Mechanical Engineering professionals satisfying technical and social needs.

ABOUT COLLEGE

Yeshwant Rural Education Society's Bapurao Deshmukh College of Engineering was established in 1983 by Late Shri. Bapuraoji Deshmukh, a close associate of Mahatma Gandhi with the concept "Teaching is a mission not a profession." This mission is being continued by our present Chairman Prof. Suresh B. Deshmukh and Director Er. Samir S. Deshmukh. The college is recognized by the AICTE and permanently affiliated to Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur. The College is located in Sevagram, about 8 km from Wardha and 5 km from Sevagram railway station (Delhi-Chennai route) and well connected by roads and railways with all major cities in India. It is about 80 km from Nagpur.

ABOUT DEPARTMENT

Mechanical Engg. Department, established in 1986, is one of the favored destination of aspiring Mech. Engineers of the region. Highly qualified and experienced faculty is the strength of department. Department operates two shifts with intake of 120 in 1st and 60 in 2nd shift. Department also runs M.Tech program in CAD-CAM with intake capacity of 24. Well equipped laboratories & fully functional clubs like Mechtron and First Lab remain open 24X7 for students. Department developed and disseminated many useful technologies for agricultural and rural industrial products.

ABOUT CONFERENCE

The conference aims to bring forum for the UG & PG students to discuss the latest developments in Mechanical Engineering field and to provide a great exposure on the emerging areas of Manufacturing and Automation for the research works.
